Independence Day Celebration in CORE

CORE celebrated 75th anniversary of Independence Day with great fervour & festivity under Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. Shri Arun Kumar, GM/CORE hoisted the National Flag and extended his greetings to the CORE family.

Shri Kumar mentioned that in the year 2020-21, CORE had Commissioned 4277 RKM which was the highest ever in the history of CORE. He informed that a challenging target of 5876 RKM has been given to CORE for the current financial year and all project units were fully geared up to accomplish this target.

On this auspicious occasion, Railway Electrification Women's Welfare Organisation (REWWO) members were also present. Shri Kumar expressed his gratitude to REWWO members for their support and good work for the families of the employees.

Later, a colourful cultural programme was presented and prizes were distributed by REWWO President Smt. Nilima Katiyar.

Similar activities were undertaken in all nine Project Units of CORE and the Independence Day Message of GM/CORE was read.
